Lorin Allred

Lorin Allred

BACKGROUND

Lorin's family homesteaded early in the Uintah Basin. He was born and raised and educated in the schools of Eastern Utah. His wife is the former Joy Defa of Hanna, Utah. Their 5 children Jerry, Luana (Mrs. Wayne Watson), Verlene (Mrs. Scott Jense), Jim and Vince were all born and educated in Wasatch County.

EDUCATION

B.A. degree from U of U
Professional certificate (5th year) from Utah State and BYU
Has taught high school, junior high school and middle school classes of band, biology, health, p.e. and science. 30 years in Wasatch schools.

AS A LEGISLATOR

Lorin was the ranking minority leader of the transportation and safety appropriations committee, translated this means some expertise in sheriffs and road maintenance departments which are vital services to our county.

Service in the legislative agriculture committee coupled with a farm background further makes his commitment stronger for the agriculture industry. He has supported tax off livestock, sales tax exemption for farm machinery and the green belt continuation because these things can protect farmlands and maintain their production. Farmers, as yet have not benefited from economic recovery.

VARIED INTERESTS

Having a State of Utah contractors license with a business license for Heber City and Wasatch County provides insight into the economic benefits of contracting and the trades industries here. He has a desire that this part of our economy thrives.

AS A PUBLIC SERVANT

"Through associating with young people in schools, community and church, I have developed a great appreciation for them and share with them their goal of home ownership and productive employment. Whatever the County Commission can do to make this possible, I will strive vigorously to accomplish."

AS A COMMISSIONER

"Commissioner Holmes has been appointed a director of the CUP representing Wasatch Co. If

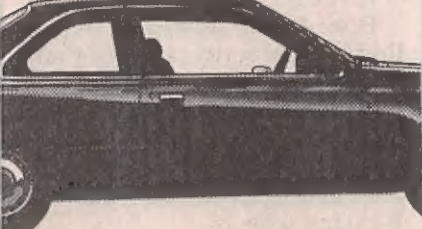

I am elected I feel we will have an
